

ALAMEDA COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT

MEMORANDUM

MARCUS DAWAL
Chief Probation Officer

DATE: January 4, 2023

TO: All Probation Department Staff

FROM:
Brian Ford, Assistant Chief Probation Officer

SUBJECT: Winter Storm

This memorandum is being issued to alert all ACPD staff of the severe weather conditions that are projected to begin this evening at approximately 6 PM through Thursday, January 5, 2023, throughout Northern California. We should be mindful of high winds, which may cause power outages and debris in the roadways. Heavy rains may affect the routes in which we commute, due to flooding in areas with insufficient drainage, or poorly maintained roads. While traveling, be aware of your surroundings, keep an eye out for failed or falling power lines, trees, and branches. Stay informed by listening to KCBS 740 or KGO 810 AM radio stations for emergency instructions and updates, including flood warnings and instructions. Weather updates are also available at <http://www.weather.gov/>, information regarding resources and preparedness can be found at <https://www.acpwa.org/prepare-for-winter-storms.page> and <https://www.acgov.org/emergencysite/>.

If you have any questions regarding the aforementioned information, please contact Safety Officer, Ashley Holmes at asholmes@acgov.org or 510-268-(2)2047.
