POSITIVE YOUTH DEVELOPMENT COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

NOVEMBER 2025

Community Programs Serving

- At-Promise Youth, ages 9 to 21
- System-involved Youth, ages 12 to 21
- Transition Aged Youth (TAY), ages 18 to 21

PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

ANGER MANAGEMENT

Helps youth understand, control, and express emotions in healthy, constructive ways to reduce conflict and promote emotional well-being.

CIVIC AND SOCIAL ENGAGEMENT

Youth develop leadership, advocacy, and civic skills to actively engage in their communities and lead positive change.

COGNITIVE BEHAVIOR INTERVENTION

Equips youth to recognize and change negative thought patterns, manage emotions, and make positive choices that support mental well-being and long-term success.

DIVERSION

Provides early intervention and community-based support to keep youth out of the juvenile justice system through assessment, partnership, education, alternatives and family involvement.

GENDER RESPONSIVE

Programming tailored to the specific needs of young individuals who identify as female, offering empowerment and education to foster the development of self-esteem and confidence.

GROUP/NETWORK INTERVENTIONS

Supports youth in breaking the cycle of violence and gang involvement through counseling, conflict resolution, crisis management, and future planning that promote safety, healing, and positive life choices.

LIFE SKILLS & SUPPORT SERVICES

Equips youth with practical skills, financial literacy, education support, and resources for health, independence and successful transition into adulthood.

MENTORING

Connects youth with supportive, culturally aware adults who provide guidance, positive role modeling, and personalized support to build critical thinking and reduce system involvement.

OUTPATIENT DRUG TREATMENT

Supports youth in overcoming substance use through education, personalized treatment, and relapse prevention while allowing them to maintain daily routines and relationships.

PARENTING CLASSES

Equips young parents with practical skills and knowledge in child care, development, and positive discipline to build healthy family relationships and promote safe, nurturing homes.

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

Helps youth take accountability, repair harm, and build empathy through restorative practices that promote healing, communication, and positive community relationships.
