

YOUTH SERVICES IN OAKLAND FUNDED BY THE ALAMEDA COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT

Carl B. Metoyer
Center for Family
Counseling

CARL B. METOYER
CENTER FOR FAMILY
COUNSELING

Ages served:
8 - 21 years old

Therapeutic counseling, crisis intervention, case management, and diversion services.

Address: 9925 International Boulevard, Suite 6, Oakland

Phone: (510) 562-3731

Email: admin@cbmccfc.org

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF THE EAST BAY

Ages served:
14 - 21 years old

Catholic Charities provides therapeutic counseling, crisis intervention, case management, and diversion services.

Address: 433 Jefferson Street, Oakland

Phone: (510) 768-3100

Email: lguzman@cceb.org

CENTERFORCE

Ages served: 8 - 21 years old

Youth court for first-time juvenile offenders who would otherwise be referred for prosecution by the district attorney. Youth can participate in youth court by volunteering to be a lawyer or member of the jury and learn more about the justice system. Centerforce also runs a restorative justice education program and parenting classes.

Address: 1904 Franklin Street, Suite 418, Oakland

Phone: (510) 834-3457 ext. 401

Email: referral@centerforce1.org

EAST BAY AGENCY FOR CHILDREN

Ages served: 8 - 21 years old

Therapeutic counseling, crisis intervention, case management, and diversion.

Address: 2828 Ford Street, Oakland

Phone: (510) 913-4696

Email: dpnreferrals@ebac.org

Fresh Lifelines for Youth

FRESH LIFELINES FOR YOUTH

Ages served: 14 - 18 years old

12-week law education and life skills training program at alternative education schools and community-based sites. FLY also runs a Leadership Training Program, which includes prosocial activities, a wilderness retreat, service learning, individual leadership coaching and case management.

Address: 333 Hegenberger Road, Suite 350, Oakland

Phone: (408) 263-2630

Email: acprogramsreferral@flyprogram.org

The Crisis Receiving Home (CRH) is a same-day emergency shelter that provides a safe environment for youth ages 8 through 17 who are in crisis. The shelter is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. At the CRH, youth receive:

- Three healthy meals a day
- Comfortable sleeping accommodations
- Hygiene supplies
- Educational and recreation activities
- Family counseling and reunification services
- Case management and therapy

Notes: The CRH accepts same-day drop-offs from law enforcement officers. Officers should first obtain consent from the youth's legal guardian (while keeping the location and telephone number of the CRH confidential) and call the CRH to ensure there is space available. Youth are NOT eligible for services if they are on probation or in foster care.

*Local law enforcement should be called to arrange for more immediate and safe transport to the CRH. This is a secure location whose address is not to be disclosed to the public. Contact Eden Counseling Services with questions, and you will receive a call back within 24 hours. www.edencounseling.org (510) 247-9831

YOUTH UPRISING (YU)

Ages served: 8 - 21 years old

NOTE: Youth UpRising accepts same-day drop-ins between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Integrated services to youth in the areas of career & education, health & wellness, arts & expression, and life skills. YU operates a social enterprise that provides youth with employment training in high-demand jobs like food and hospitality management, landscaping, and digital arts.

Address: 8711 MacArthur Boulevard, Oakland
Phone: (510) 777-9909 ext. 111
Email: dpn@youthuprising.org

YOUTH EMPLOYMENT PARTNERSHIP

Ages served: 14 - 24 years old

Paid job readiness workshops for youth and job training and employment opportunities in the community. Internships are available with community-based nonprofits, government agencies, small businesses, and corporations in an array of fields including recreation, retail, commercial food preparation, environmental education, building maintenance, and operations.

Address: 2300 International Boulevard, Oakland
Phone: (510) 533-3447
Email: rrose@yep.org

YOUTH ALIVE!

Ages served: 8 - 21 years old

Teens on Target, a leadership and violence prevention peer educator program for Castlemont & Fremont High School students. Youth ALIVE! also operates the Teens on Target Speakers Bureau and Community Youth Leadership Council, through which youth learn to tell their stories and express their ideas for change to a wide group of civic, business, and educational groups.

Address: 3300 Elm Street, Oakland
Phone: (510) 594-2588 ext. 302
Email: dpn@youthalive.org

SAFE PASSAGES

Ages served: 14 - 19 years old

Life and Career Roadmap Program includes job readiness workshops, intensive career coaching, and internship/work experience with financial incentives. Jobs are at least 12 months in duration.

Address: 250 Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, Suite 6306, Oakland
Phone: (510) 238-4914
Email: PYEP@Safepassages.org