

May '24 - June '24

Oakland YWFC PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Open to cis and trans young women, trans young men, and gender expansive youth between 14-25 y/o

$50 stipend for participation!

Young Mother's United

4pm-6pm

A space for young women and trans youth of all genders to connect with each other rooted in community, siblinghood, healing, and self advocacy. Youth impacted by systems of incarceration, welfare, foster care, & the underground street economy- come through!

Contact Loana for more info 510-650-8198

MONDAY

Drop-In Resources / 1:1 Advocacy Support

3pm-6pm

Start your week off right!

If you are system impacted and/or navigating the underground street economy, stop by the Oakland YWFC office to meet with one of our Self Determination Advocates to discuss resources.

Contact for more info 510-650-8198

TUESDAY

$50 stipend for participation!

Beyond Survival

4pm-6pm

Beyond Survival is a culturally competent, trauma-informed, youth-led initiative supporting BIPOC system-impacted young women and trans youth involved in substance use and the underground street economy. It promotes harm reduction, addresses social determinants of health, and offers community education and advocacy solutions to the overdose crisis.

Contact Loana for more info 510-650-8198

WEDNESDAY

$50 stipend for participation!

Transform Your Hustle

4pm-6pm

A series of informative workshops that give participants information and resources on how to obtain economic self-sufficiency through four pathways:

- 1) Career-building
  - 2) Traditional Education
  - 3) Entrepreneurship
  - 4) Vocational/Trade School
- Last two Thursday's of the month are Beyond Survival

Contact Simone for more info 510-850-7911

THURSDAY

Westlake Building, 350 Frank H. Ogawa Plaza
Oakland, CA 94612
8th floor

*Eligible to only participate in ONE program per week (Mon-Thurs), Tuesday Drop-In does not count*